

Shannon Clarke

Project Manager – Albany Visualization and Informatics Lab (AVAIL)

Shannon Clarke works with the AVAIL leadership team to collaboratively manage projects and provide critical support, initiative, organization, and creativity to enhance the AVAIL portfolio. Mrs. Clarke’s project management experience and skills include adaptive supervision and coordination of workflows and teams, time management across multiple projects, handling client priorities and excellent attention to project performance, quality and product-oriented focus.

Education

- B.A. Media Studies, State University of New York, Purchase College, 2007
- B.A. Anthropology, Purchase College, 2007
- Master of Urban and Regional Planning (MRP), State University of New York, University at Albany, 2017-

Professional Highlights

- Graduate Assistant, Department of Geography and Planning, University at Albany, 2018
- Project Manager, Omega Women’s Leadership Center, Rhinebeck, NY 2015-2018
- Event Coordinator, Omega Institute for Holistic Studies, Rhinebeck, NY 2013-2015
- Certified Mediator, Mediators Without Borders, 2016

Related Projects

Web-based NPMRDS Congestion and Performance Measurement Dashboard - NYSDOT

Ms. Clarke is currently serving as project support.

Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Services – FEMA – State Hazard Mitigation Plan

Ms. Clarke is currently serving as project support on the New York State Hazard Mitigation Plan project, where she manages team members to scope and deliver content for the plan. She is also helping to scope the phase 2 tools for development in 2019.